

Every Child Matters on Long Island, wants you to join them in making a difference at the:

Saturday, October 23rd, 2010
10 a.m. — 2 p.m. at the S.U.N.Y Farmingdale, NY

A day for children and youth to learn the importance of civic engagement, community solidarity, and to make their issues heard.

The day will include our Keynote Speaker Dr. Cristal McGill from “Why Try”, local youth speakers and delegates, performers, a workshop, a youth led politician forum, activity booths, childrens’ ballot box, awareness on Child Abuse and Neglect, Child Poverty & Readiness for Success. The childrens’ concerns will be presented to the major political parties on the state and national levels.

Pre-registration is requested. Individuals, small and large groups are welcome. To register, volunteer, or for more information, contact Shea at 631-462-0303 ext. 161 or go to our website.

We will be collecting a can of food for children affected by poverty, a new packaged toy for kids affected by child abuse & neglect, and a book to get children ready for success!
